RESOURCES FOR TELEPHONIC MEETINGS & HEARINGS

Due to the COVID-19 virus-related issues and Administrative Orders issued by the U.S. Bankruptcy Court, we cannot hold 341 meetings or court hearings in person at this time. Please read this notice very carefully so you may obtain complete information about the new and temporary way we will address these matters. Click HERE for a staff directory. Email, not telephones, is our method of communication.

→341 MEETINGS OF CREDITORS: Please click HERE for more information about how our office will be conducting 341 meetings. For an updated list of questions to ask the debtors click HERE.

→COURT HEARINGS: Please click HERE to learn more about status conferences at court. Click HERE for information about Judge Oxholm's procedure for her "contested docket" on the record; Click HERE for the same for Judge Shefferly.

→DEBTOR ORIENTATION SLIDES: A copy of our "Debtor Orientation" slideshow is available HERE or on the Forms page of our website at www.det13.com, in the Miscellaneous section. Please make copies of it available to your clients.
